Veterans of Chesterfield County

The Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia is compiling a database of all Chesterfield County veterans from the Colonial wars to the 21st Century. Intended as a memorial to those who served their country, this database will be made available to researchers who visit the Society library and may be provided online. Please include only information that you would like added to this database. For more information, please contact the Chesterfield Historical Society of VA at (804)796-7121 or email admin@chesterfieldhistory.com
